BloodSource Volunteer: Marrow Recruitment Director

Purpose

BloodSource and "Be The Match", National Marrow Donor Program, are building a community of donors, volunteers, health care professionals and researchers committed to helping patients get the life-saving marrow or cord blood transplant they need. Join us in our passion to save lives, commitment to finding marrow donors and providing hope for patients and their families.

Value

You are joining a group of passionate volunteer leaders committed to saving lives. BloodSource is recruiting for a non-paid Volunteer Marrow Recruitment Director, who must be enrolled in a university or college program. You will gain valuable management, marketing, and leadership experience that you will be able to utilize as you further your education and in future careers. Your BloodSource Account Manager will provide you with training, resources, support, guidance and encouragement throughout your Directorship.

Volunteer Duties

1. Raise awareness about marrow donation through on-campus recruitment efforts.
2. Recruit students, faculty and staff to join "Be The Match" to become marrow donors.
3. Measure, track and meet individual marrow collection goals.
4. Actively recruit and educate potential marrow donors through outreach to clubs/organizations, classroom presentations, tabling etc.
5. Maintain confidentiality in accordance with current regulatory and professional standards, including HIPAA.
6. Process donor applications properly and in a timely manner.

Eligibility

To be eligible for the position, applicant must:

1. Have passion and drive to help save lives.
2. Have a minimum GPA of 2.5.
3. Complete and submit the Volunteer Marrow Recruitment Director Application.

Requirements

- ☐ A completed application and resume (see page 2 for application).
- ☐ A typed essay, no more than one page, about what you would like to gain as a Volunteer Marrow Recruitment Director, to include how your experience will benefit you in your future education and/or career goals.
- ☐ One personal letter of recommendation.
